Philippians 4:1-13

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned for me, but had no opportunity to show it. Not that I am referring to being in need; for I have learned to be content with whatever I have. I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through God who strengthens me.

5. Children's Church Reminder • While the Children's Church Director position is vacant, our Children's Church is being led by members and friends of our Beloved Community, and is running on a new schedule. For the first Sunday of the month, all children are invited to remain in worship with their adults (communion is served and is open to all). There will be classroom lessons on the second and third Sundays, and a fellowship time with art, games, and music on the fourth Sunday. When there is a fifth Sunday, all children are invited to help with prep for Cathedral in the Night. Your help and leadership is essential and greatly appreciated! You can sign up for one or more Sundays, and you don't need to have a child in the program in order to help out. Please contact Andrew Geery to sign up or for more information.
